

13 May 2011

Parent's Newsletter

11th Chinese Young People Writing Competition

The competition was organized by Overseas Chinese Affairs Office of the State Council, Hanban of the Chinese Language Council (International), China National Committee for the Wellbeing of the Youth, People's Daily (overseas edition), The Education Department of Henan Province, Beijing Municipal Commission of Education etc. The purpose of the competition was to promote the learning of Chinese. Our school actively participated and got outstanding results. Nickie Chang (P.5S) and Zandra Ng (P.5B) were awarded 1st class certificates; Bobo Lo (P.2S), Jocelyn Yuen (P.3B) and Enoch Wong (P.5B) were awarded 2nd class certificates; Edmond Cheng (P.2S), Elizabeth Chan (P.2S), Charles Chan (P.4B), Anthony Choi (P.6S), Shannon Choi (P.6S), Trafford Lai (P.6S) and Nelly Mak (P.6S) were awarded 3rd class certificates. All the certificates were distributed to the winners on Wednesday morning assembly.

13th Hong Kong Primary and Secondary Schools Putonghua Speech Competition

The competition is jointly organized by The Cultural and Educational Association of the New Towns and the Standing Committee on Language Education and Research. Our students joined the New Territories Primary Schools competition on 16 April. Two of the students had outstanding performance and were awarded certificates of super merit. They were Terence Lee (P.5) and Edmond Cheng (P.2). Three students had very good performance and were awarded certificates of merit. They were Andrew Chan (P.3), Anton Yuen (P.5) and Dennis Lin (P.5). Another seven students had good performance and were awarded certificates of proficiency. They were Tiffany Lam (P.1), Phoebe Yau (P.1), Elizabeth Chan (P.2), Jocelyn Yuen (P.3), James Harris (P.4), Peter Cheung (P.4) and Jerry Ng (P.5).

Winners of the Writing Competition

Winners of Putonghua Speech Competition

4th National Piano Competition (Southern China District)

The competition was organized by China Conservatory on 26 March. Congratulations to Anton Yuen (P.5S) who joined the Grade 8 piano competition and was awarded certificate of Silver Medal.

2010-2011 Yuen Long Primary School Heads Association's Outstanding Students Award

As a recognition of the outstanding performance of primary students, the Yuen Long Primary School Heads Association organized the award scheme. The performance of Bobo Cheung, our P.6 student, is assessed and accepted as award winner. She attended the prize giving ceremony and received her certificate and trophy in this afternoon.

Remainder: PTA Excursion

Our PTA has organized an excursion tomorrow. The registration time is 9.00 a.m. at our school hall. Participating families please arrive on time.

Staff Movement

Ms Candy would have maternity leave during 25 May–15 July. Her teaching work would be substituted by an experienced and qualified teacher. The Principal would also have in-service training during 16 – 30 May. Ms Esther Wu, the Vice-principal is appointed to act as the Principal during his absence.